Winter 2009-2010

Dear Fellow Knitters,

This fall Project Linus asked if our shop could be a drop-off to receive blankets that are made for their program. They give blankets to children who are ill. For the last several years we have accepted premie hats, chemo caps, warm winter hats and scarves and have forwarded them on to various charities. Before that Adrienne's daughters began a premie blanket drive as a special project for their Bat Mitzvah. Over 100 handknit blankets came through our doors and were given to Evanston Hospital's High Risk Infant Nursery.

This holiday season, we would like to continue the spirit of giving and sharing our love of knitting. We are asking those of you who have time to knit a hat, mittens or scarf to be given to families in need. For the month of December we will have a "Giving Tree" in the front of the shop which will be adorned with these items. If you don't have time to knit or crochet, store-bought items are also welcomed. They will be given to PADS, a crisis program that provides emergency shelter. There is no deadline as we continue to forward items throughout the year. Thank you for anything you are able to do!!!

This fall has been very busy with knitting and crocheting! What's new? Dresses. Yes, we're knitting dresses. The new pattern books have a variety from which to choose, not to mention the one I knitted up for the store. Cowls are big.

Some are calling them snoods and they're on the runway. They're as varied as scarves are.

Suzy has crocheted 2 fabulous shawls from the book, Crochet in Color. Between the Koigu colors she chose and the beautiful stitchwork they're knock-outs! I hope you've all also noticed the outstanding crocheted "Babette" afghan over our fireplace (also compliments of Suzy). Tempt you to start crocheting yet???

In an effort to inspire some gift giving knitting, staff are displaying their wares, gifts they will be giving this holiday season. The requirement was just several skeins of yarn costing under $50. Check out our "last minute knitted gifts": Holly's cowl, Penny's Cherry Scarf, Joan's fingerless gloves, Suzy's cabled scarf, Robin's cashmere lace neckwarmer, Julie's chunky Misti Handpaint hat, Debby's ruffled and ribbed alpaca scarf, to mention a few.

Also mark you calendar for Saturday, April 17th for our 2nd annual North Suburban Knit Out at Northbrook Court!

Have a wonderful holiday season!
Happy Knitting,
Lynette
