Winter 2022

Dear Fellow Knitters and Crocheters,

It's been a busy time at the shop and I hope all is well with you as we gradually attempt to return to "normal."

We've been delighted at how well things have gone with classes resuming. We look forward to our upcoming Winter session. Classes bring fun and creative energy to the shop. We love seeing your latest projects, especially as they come to fruition.

Our Sample Sale was a great event and we were able to raise over $2,000 for the Malala Fund through your donations and a portion of the sales. The Malala Fund's mission to ensure young girls receive an education around the world is one I hold dear. As a woman-owned, women-run, and mostly woman-supported business, I feel passionate about this.

Enclosed in this newsletter is our class schedule. There are some fun new offerings. Paige is offering a class on gauging, yes the importance of gauging, and how you can work with an existing pattern if your gauge isn't exact. Jill is teaching us how to embellish your handknits and machine knits through fun embroidery. Linda is helping you design your own Norwegian sweater. Penny's doll class is back by popular demand or you can join her in a knit-along for the Lemon sweater in Marianne Isager's Eat & Knit book. Mary has a great class for your first go at a top-down-in-the-round sweater, while Adrienne campaigns to turn all of us into sock knitters, 3 or 4 at a time! She is teaching several sock classes.

A new crochet class, Granny Square Baby Blanket, has been added to the schedule and will be taught by Sandy DeJulio who is new to our teaching staff.

Fun new yarn additions on the shelf are Amble Minis to complement the Fibre Company's Amble sock yarn. You might want to try colorwork socks or use this yarn for a sweater. Rios Solidos has arrived. This is Malabrigo's first solid colored yarn with dye lots. We have a hard time keeping Rios, a worsted weight merino superwash, in stock. It is a shop favorite!

Rowan's Felted Tweed Colours is a beautiful ombre version of the widely popular Felted Tweed. It's also been flying off the shelves, but we are fully stocked in all their colors now. The shop has also been infused with some of the Fibre Company favorites – Tundra, Road to China Light, Canopy Fingering, Acadia and Meadow.

Let's hope for a happy, healthy and safe New Year!

Lynette
